

ATTACKED BY A STALLION

Horse Dealer Blitten Through the Hand, Knocked Down and Badly Injured

A FRIEND TO THE RESCUE

A Split in Tabernacle Baptist Church, Colored, and Charges Against the Pastor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., May 20.—Trouble seems to be brewing at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, colored, in this city.
The church is now divided into two factions, one of which is supporting the pastor, Rev. C. B. W. Gordon, and the other opposing him. The faction opposing him say that the pastor refuses to allow anyone, other than himself, to act as moderator, and that he declares motions carried contrary to the Baptist discipline, in consequence of which members are expelled or reinstated as the pastor sees fit.

Several meetings have already been held, at which Mr. Robert Gilliam, Jr., appeared as counsel for one of the factions. The matter will be likely to get into the courts before a final settlement is reached.

Rev. Gordon is said to have received a flattering call to a church in Norfolk.

ATTACKED BY STALLION.

Mr. O. J. Taylor, a well known horse dealer in this city, was badly injured by a stallion yesterday afternoon.

The animal had never before shown a vicious disposition, and Mr. Taylor believes he was teased. The horse attacked Mr. Taylor suddenly, biting him through the hand and knocking him down. After he had been knocked down, the horse began to paw him and would have killed him, but for the courage of a man standing near-by, who went to Mr. Taylor's rescue, and finally succeeded in beating the horse off. Mr. Taylor says that several persons were present, but that all but one seemed to lack the courage to lend him any help. Besides being bitten through the hand, Mr. Taylor had his face cut and his body badly bruised.

CITIZENS ILL.

Mr. W. T. Parham is ill with pneumonia at his home on South Sycamore street, in this city, but his condition today is somewhat improved.

Mr. Parham attended the recent session of the Grand Lodge of Odd-Fellows in Lynchburg, on which occasion he took a severe cold. He was taken ill soon after his return to this city.

The condition of Mr. John W. Bradbury, who was paralyzed a few days ago, shows little improvement.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SMITH'S CROSS, VA., May 20.—

Hill, South Hill, Va., will soon erect a handsome brick building, equipped with the most modern bank fixtures. The contects.

Mr. J. H. Ogburn is rapidly pushing the work on his mineral springs near here. The surrounding grounds are being very much beautified, and work will soon commence on the hotel, which will be a handsome and spacious building.

The water will be conveyed from the springs to the hotel in pipes.

A Surprise Marriage

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., May 20.—A surprise marriage took place in Lexington yesterday afternoon. The contracting parties were Miss Maggie Beverley, of Timber Ridge, Rockbridge county, and Mr. T. T.
Dresser, of Lawrence, Kansas. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Dr. James A. Quarles. The marriage was very quiet. Two brothers of the bride live in Lexington and neither was present. One did not know of the marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Dresser left on the afternoon Chesapeake and Ohio train for Kansas, where they will make their home.
The bride is an attractive young lady and is the daughter of the late Dr. R. Beverley, former State treasurer for Virginia.

She taught school in Kansas several years ago, and there met her future husband.

RAPPAHANNOCK CONFERENCE

Will Meet Next Year in Lebanon Church, Essex County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BOWLING GREEN, VA., May 20.—The Rappahannock District conference closed with last night's session.

After the opening exercises at 2:30 P.
M. by W. F. Davis and the approval of the minutes, the conference proceeded to consider the report of the committee on the ownership of Marvin Grove camp ground, to the effect that it is not wise that we should further consider this subject, which was adopted.

The Committee on Publishing Interests made a report commending J. Spitzer, the ownership of Marvin Grove camp ground, and the Richmond Christian Advocate, and that the members of the conference will endeavor to increase the circulation of the paper by at least 200 subscribers, in the next fifty days.

This report was discussed by Messrs.
Ray, Deshazo, Davis and Peters, and adopted.

Professor Phelps, of the Bowling Green Female Seminary, addressed the conference in the interest of his school.

The report on temperance was read by J. L. Fribble and adopted.

Lebanon Church, of the Essex charge, was unanimously chosen as the seat of the next conference.

The subject of Sunday schools was reported on and ventilated by Mr.
Walker, and the report was adopted.

J. B. Deshazo made a report on missions and sustained the same in a strong address, and the report was adopted.

The conference reassembled at 7:30 P.
M. and resolutions of thanks were tendered the citizens of the town for the beautiful hospitality, and to railroad and steamboat lines for reduced rates, and to the president of the conference and secretaries for courtesies and accuracy.

The Lawn Hotel, under conduct of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richards, took great and pleasant care of their guests. The house in summer is surrounded by guests from Baltimore, Norfolk and Richmond.

J. M. Anderson, of the Committee on the State of the Church, reported and the subject was discussed by Revs. Dr.
G. H. Ray and Richard Ferguson, and the conference adjourned sine die, and was followed by a very able sermon from Rev. J. M. Anderson, of Whitestone, Va.

RESIDENCE SOLD.

Interest in the Congressional Contest in Mecklenburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOYDTON, VA., May 20.—The residence of the late Miss Sophia Goode, located on Jefferson Street, in this town, was sold Tuesday to Cashier E. W.
Overby, of the Bank of Mecklenburg.

This is a very desirable place, being very conveniently located, and one of the principal streets of the town.

Some interest is being taken here in the contest between Congressman R. G.
Southall and ex-Governor Cameron for a seat in the next House of Representatives. Mr. Southall is better known in Mecklenburg than ex-Governor Cameron, and for this reason he has, perhaps, a larger vote.

Mr. Southall is an orator and statesman, and will give Mr. Southall a close race. Mr. James F. Epps, another aspirant for congressional honors, has no following whatever in Mecklenburg.

sick for the past ten days, is better. His daughter, Mrs. J. M. D. Martin, of Baltimore, is visiting him.

A large force is at work on the extension improvements going on at Beach Park. The Seaside Highway is progressing. The soda fountain and ice cream saloon is getting itself in order to receive the Switzer, who will bring the first excursion here Whit Monday, May 24th.

L. E. Mumford, president; R. V. Nottingham, vice-president; Mr. Charles B.
Meady, cashier of the bank at Cape Charles, and Mr. John E. Nottingham, attorney, all representing the L. E.
Mumford Banking Company, were here recently inspecting the condition of the bank. They found everything in a highly satisfactory shape and pronounced the bank, under the management of the system, the best in the South.

The party came up on the police boat Rappahannock, Captain Hudgins commander.

OBITUARY.

M. A. Hasten.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OCTAGON, VA., May 20.—Mr. M. A.
Hasten, a middle aged saw mill man, in the county of Octagon and Warfield, Va., died Saturday, and his body was taken to his home in Salisbury, Md. Mr. Hasten was one of the largest and best saw mill men anywhere in this neighborhood.

He leaves a wife and two children. His death was caused from exposure and a congestive chill. He was a good father, lovingly before he died he called all of his hands to his bedside, two score or more in number, and told them if they wanted to meet him again they must leave "Sam," the liquor man, alone, which produced a cry from nearly every one. The large mill which he owned, the Downing Lumber Company, the president of the company, Mr. Downing, is on his way to give attention to the matter.

H. M. Mawyer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ADIAL, VA., May 20.—Mr. Harden M.
Mawyer, an esteemed citizen of Nelson county, at the ripe old age of eighty-two years, and seven months, passed from this life into the great beyond, as the result of a severe attack of bronchitis.

Mr. Mawyer had for more than thirty years lived near Adial. By hard and careful work he amassed quite a fortune.
He was a good neighbor, a kind friend, a faithful member of Adial Baptist Church.

Mr. Mawyer is survived by four sons, G. T. W. R. S. W. and E. W. Maw-yer, and four daughters, Mrs. Eliza Mawyer, Mrs. Mary Martin, Miss Maring had been intense.

were with her at the time of her death.
She was sixty-two years of age. For some time she has been president of the W. C. T. U. at this place, and was a

WYSOR A MAN OF DESTINY

Strong Belief That He Will Succeed in Retiring Col. Slomp to Private Life.

THE VIRGINIA INSTITUTE

Two of Richmond's Leading Ministers Take Part in the Exercises.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BRISTOL, VA., May 20.—Inquiry as to the status of the congressional issue of the Ninth District among the Democrats invariably elicits the same response, Wy-sor is the man of fate, as there is no other Democratic aspirant in sight. The spirit of the party seems strong and hopeful, and the leaders seem confident that satisfactory arrangements can be effected for retiring Colonel Slomp to the shadows of private life.

ELLYSON FOR GOVERNOR.
Far as Bristol may seem to be from the center of things, they do not fail to have street corner caucuses as to the next gubernatorial issue. They are generous enough to hear all claims and to furnish a few constituents for almost every worthy cause, though it is hardly safe to predict that any candidate will secure a smooth and leisurely walk-over.
In almost any group of citizens, J. Taylor Lillyson is pretty sure to get a favorable mention. The people are appreciative and they do not forget that Mr.
Ellyson has led the party through many critical phases and deserves substantial recognition.

J. K. Fulton, of Grayson county, has been in Bristol for several days, having been drawn by the fact that his niece is about to receive her honors at the Virginia Institute, of which she is a student.

Mr. Fulton is the superintendent of public schools in his county, and does not hesitate to claim for the schools of his county full equality with the schools of the other counties of the State.

VIRGINIA INSTITUTE.
The Virginia Institute is the Baptist college of the Southwest. It has had its vanities and vexations in the past in the way of financial troubles, but one year ago it was delivered from its complications and reopened last fall with new hopes. It had the same good fortune to secure Dr. J. T. Henderson, a born leader, a ripe scholar and an experienced administrator of college affairs. The session has been a marvel of success.

The commencement, with all of its varied exercises and attractions, closed Thursday night. It was full of enthusiasm, and the friends of the school, Dr.
Hatcher, who led the movement for saving the property, stopped over on his return from Nashville, and preached the baccalaureate sermon. The address of the school gave him a mighty welcome and he expressed the highest hopes as to the future of the school. Rev. M.
Ashby Jones, another Richmond minister, made the address to the literary societies, and Richmond needs not to be told that he did it splendidly.

Coming Wedding.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROXBURY, VA., May 20.—One of the prettiest marriages of the season will take place June 1st, at 2 P. M., at Tabernacle Church, in this city, when Mr. Robert Lee Boswell will lead to the altar Miss Viola H. Drake, the charming young daughter of Mrs. Pawell H.
Drake. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Mr. Lillinton, of the Methodist Church. The bride-elect is one of New Kent's most charming young ladies, and is very popular; while the groom-to-be is deputy treasurer of New Kent, and a prosperous young farmer. After an extended bridal tour, which will include the St. Louis Exposition, they will be home to their friends in Barboursville, Va.

Glenn the Favorite.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DUNN, N. C., May 20.—R. B. Glenn, one of the two most prominent candidates for the gubernatorial contest, now raging throughout this State, spoke here tonight to a large and enthusiastic audience, which occupied every available inch of space of the Opera Hall. The speaker was at his best and the audience was sympathetic. His address was entirely original, and his response to the cheering of the audience was most impressive. He has been about evenly divided between Mr. Glenn and Charles M. Steadman, perhaps Steadman a little in the lead, but after Glenn's powerful speech here it is highly probable that the political face of the county has been changed.

Prisoner Killed by Policeman.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 20.—Willie Williams, a negro, was shot and killed by Policeman Knapp to-night. The negro had been established here and responsive to the police. He was shot in the back under arrest. Williams broke away. A shot in the air failed to halt him, and the policeman then fired with fatal results.

MEMORIAL DAY AT SUFFOLK, VA.

A Monument Unveiled to the Soldier Dead of the Carolinas.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., May 20.—Confederate memorial day was observed by a parade and unveiling. The parade was headed by a band and composed of veterans, in local militia, firemen and Pythians, all in uniform, and two hundred and thirty small school children of both sexes dressed in white, with red ribbons and sashes.

At Cedar Hill Cemetery a monument was unveiled to the soldier dead of North and South Carolina who are buried there.
The unveiling address was made by Robert W. Withers. The veil was drawn by little Nancy Poole Woolford and Sarah Augusta Hines. A chorus of nearly three hundred children's voices sang "Dixie," "Bonnie Blue Flag" and other Southern songs. The ceremonies were witnessed by two thousand people.

The speaker was introduced by General L. S. Barker, formerly of North Carolina, and prayer was made by Dr. W. W.
Staley, president of Elon College, North Carolina.

The monument was erected by Suffolk Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy.

FOR VIRGINIA FARMS.

Commissioner Koiner Is Doing Much for Their Improvement.

That Commissioner Koiner is being looked to for help and information of a practical nature by the farmers of the State is evidenced daily in the character of the mail, which is answered by the Commissioner.

Letters are received upon every subject likely to arise to perplex the farmer, and Mr. Koiner is called upon to give information and advice upon which his correspondents rely in the conduct of their work. It is most gratifying to the Commissioner to see the confidence placed in him by the farmers all over the South, though that he has justly merited it, no one can doubt who has any idea of the practical nature of the work done by him.

By following the advice and the directions of the Commissioner many a worn-out farm in Virginia has been greatly improved in its producing capacity.

The judicious use of plant foods and the best methods of improvement of the soil have been subjects to which Mr.
Koiner has given a great deal of attention, and his advice on these questions have been of much value to the State.

Services in the CHURCHES To-Morrow.

There will be a union service of the three Sunday schools of Christ Church at Augustine on Sunday, May 21, at 9:30 in the afternoon, and the Rev. Arthur S.
Lloyd, D. D., of New York, will be the speaker. This is the closing of the Holy Ghost in the safeguard of the Church.
At the Chapel of the Redeemer will come over, and with the splendid morning service, there will be a great gathering of the young of the parish to hear Dr.
Lloyd.

The Rev. Dr. Henry E. Johnson will occupy his pulpit at Laurel Street
